

Dr. Chidatmika Khatua

Social Entrepreneur,
MD, OCSC & Sushruta Hospital
& Trauma Care

Transforming lives through innovation, compassion and empowering the communities.

► Early Life and Education:

Dr. Chidatmika Khatua, born on August 11, 1971, in Balasore, Odisha, embarked on a journey of academic excellence. Graduating from Govt Girls High School Unit 9 and RD Women College, she later earned an MBA in Entrepreneurship and a Ph.D. in International Business. Her pursuit of knowledge led her to HarvardX, where she explored emerging economics.

► Professional Leadership:

Currently serving as the Managing Director of Orissa Cosmetic Surgery Clinic and Founder CEO of Sushruta Hospital and Trauma Care, Dr. Khatua also holds key positions as the Managing Trustee of Aryabhatta Institute of Education and Technology and Adi Tribal Foundation.

► Social Initiatives and Global Recognition:

As the founder of India's 1st Tribal Queen, Dr. Khatua's initiatives have been incorporated in Indian GK and recognized in the Golden Book of World Records. Her recent recognition as a Top 23 Global Positive Change maker by Guinness World Records attests to her impactful social contributions.

► Versatile Advocacy Roles:

Dr. Khatua's influence extends to various spheres, including being the General Secretary of the Women's Wing at the World Odisha Society, Convenor of Education and Skill at the Indian Chamber of Commerce, and National Spokesperson of Satya Sanatan Dharma. Additionally, she serves as the President of the Anti-Corruption Foundation.

► Philanthropy and SDG Engagement:

As the Co-founder of the So Am I Foundation, Dr. Khatua actively contributes to feeding 600 underprivileged people daily at AIIMS. Her commitment to Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) is evident through her involvement in medical tourism with Iconic Transformation and sports outreach programs in Odisha. She is driving as ambassador for breast cancer awareness under pink clinic.

► Impressive Achievements and Awards:

Dr. Khatua's impact transcends national borders. She has received numerous national and international awards, gracing the covers of prestigious magazines like Women's Era, Business Today, and BW Business World.

► Humanitarian Milestones:

Co-founder of So Am I Foundation, Dr. Khatua has fed 10 lakhs meals, skilled 50+ in Basti Ku Chala, transformed Vedic era with Muthiye Chaula through Sardha Arpan, and provided livelihoods for 50+ beneficiaries with Swaahar. Her contributions extend to impacting tribal girls and women, supporting startup businesses, and promoting mental education for students.

► Global Engagements and Government Delegation:

Dr. Khatua's global presence includes hosting international guests in Odisha, initiating the Kalinga Bali Sangam, and hoisting Prime Minister's wife, Yasoda Ben. As the 1st woman in the Odisha Government Delegation to the UK, she has played a pivotal role in representing the state on the global stage.

► Committee Application:

Dr. Chidatmika Khatua's multifaceted leadership, extensive social contributions, and global impact make her an ideal candidate for governmental committees, bringing forth a wealth of experience and dedication to positive change.